Barker Genealogy

Generation No. 1

1. Seth¹ Barker was born Abt. 1798 in Massachusetts, and died Unknown. He married Nancy Harriet (Harriet) Case, daughter of Rufus Case and Rachel Godard. She was born 10 May 1799 in Connecticut, and died Unknown.

Notes for Seth Barker:
The 1850 Federal Census seems to indicate Seth was born in Massachusetts (it was very hard to read; it looks like a shortened form of Massachusetts). Later records for his children indicate Seth was born in New York.

Seth and his family were living in Steuben County, New York in 1853 when he and wife Harriet testified for her mother Rachel, who was trying to get a pension as a result of her late husband's service in the Revolutionary War.

Notes for Nancy Harriet (Harriet) Case:
The 1850 Federal Census seemed to indicate that Harriet was born in Connecticut (it was very hard to read; it looks like a shortened form of Connecticut). Other records for her children indicate Harriet was born in New York. However, it is stated in her father's Revolutionary War pension file that Harriet was born in Connecticut, before her father moved the family to New York State.

Rufus was apparently living close to his brother Henry in Plover, Wisconsin according to the 1870 Federal Census for Wisconsin. By the time of the 1880 Federal Census, he was living in Holton, Wisconsin.

For some reason, Jane was listed as Ellen in the 1870 Federal Census but Jane after that.

According to the 1880 Federal Census, Jane's parents were born in Pennsylvania.

Jane was listed as widowed in the 1905 Wisconsin State Census

7. Henry Agustus² Barker (Seth¹) was born 20 Sep 1840 in Rochester, Monroe County, New York, and died 09 Nov 1916 in Holton, Marathon County, Wisconsin. He married Sarah J. Sterling 1870 in Plover, Portage County, Wisconsin. She was born Nov 1851 in Wisconsin, and died Aft. 1916.

Notes for Henry Agustus Barker:
When Henry was young, he moved with his parents from New York to Plover, Portage County, Wisconsin. In 1871, he moved to a farm in Holton, Marathon County, Wisconsin, where he was a farmer until about 1904, when he moved to Abbotsford in Clark County, Wisconsin.

Henry died at home of a Cerebral Hemorrage.

He is buried in Abbotsford Cemetery, in the Mayville Township of Clark County.

Notes for Sarah J. Sterling:
According to the 1880 and 1900 Federal Censuses, Sarah's parents were born in Pennsylvania.

According to the 1900 census, Sarah had given birth to 2 children (possibly 3; the number was hard to make out), 1 of them still living.

Sarah may be buried with her husband in Abbotsford Cemetery, in the Mayville Township of Clark County, Wisconsin. It's not certain at this time if she's really buried there, as I've been unable to find her death certificate and obituary, and the tombstone with her name on it doesn't have a death date.

15. Kate Maud³ Barker (Henry Agustus², Seth¹) was born 21 Dec 1872 in Holton, Marathon County, Wisconsin, and died 02 Sep 1926 in Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota. She married Lawrence Kiehl 01 Jan 1891 in Holton, Marathon County, Wisconsin, son of Jacob Kiehl and Anna Schwartz. He was born 21 May 1867 in Eden, Fond Du Lac County, Wisconsin, and died 21 Oct 1943 in Siren, Burnett County, Wisconsin.

Notes for Kate Maud Barker:
There are some conflicts as to where Kate was born. Her marriage certificate and her son Ward's birth certificate list her birthplace as Holton, Marathon County, Wisconsin, while her son Howard's death certificate says she was born in Abbotsford, Clark County, Wisconsin. There are also conflicts as to the year she was born. Her death certificate gives 1872, while a cemetery index gives it as 1873 and census sources give 1874.

The 1900 Census lists Kate having had (given birth to) 4 children and 3 of them still living (at the time of the census). I'm not sure who the other child would have been.

According to her death certificate, Kate died of Hodgkins Disease. The undertaker was the Crawford Mortuary in Duluth, Minnesota.

Kate appears to be buried in Siren Lakeview Cemetery (also known as Lakewood Cemetery) in Siren, Wisconsin (where her husband is buried), according to the cemetery's index.

Notes for Lawrence Kiehl:
There's some confusion as to where Lawrence was born. His marriage certificate, his son Howard's death certificate, and several other sources say he was born in Fond du Lac county, Wisconsin; his own death certificate says he was born in Manitowac County, Wisconsin. His parents settled in Fond Du Lac County after coming from
New York and never set foot in Manitowac; it's likely that the death certificate is wrong.

Lawrence and Kate and their first 3 children were living with Kate's parents Henry and Sarah Barker in Holton, Wisconsin at the time of the 1900 Federal census. He was listed as head of the household in the time of the 1910 Federal Census for Holton. He and his family moved to Siren, Wisconsin at some point after that and were listed as living in Siren in the 1920 Federal Census.

According to the census records and his death certificate, Lawrence was a farmer. According to his marriage record, he was a cheesemaker.

Lawrence died from cancer of the Prostate Gland, which he had been suffering from for about a year.

Lawrence is buried in Siren Lakeview Cemetery (also known as Lakewood Cemetery) in Siren, Wisconsin

Children of Kate Barker and Lawrence Kiehl are:
20  i. Howard Kiehl, born 12 Mar 1892 in Dorchester, Wisconsin; died 19 Nov 1927 in Siren, Burnett County, Wisconsin.

Notes for Howard Kiehl:
According to Howard's death certificate, he was single when he died and apparently had never married.

Cause of death: Chronic Myocardio (the word on his death certificate was hard to read; it could have been Myocardietio or Mycardelio or something else entirely). Something related to the heart.

Howard is buried in Siren, Wisconsin

21. Lawrence Kiehl (Kate Maud Barker, Henry Augustus, Seth) was born 20 Dec 1898 in Siren, Burnett County, Wisconsin, and died 07 May 1960 in Missoula, Missoula County, Montana. He married Amanda Zimmerman 28 Jan 1932 in Waukegan, Lake County, Illinois, daughter of Richard Zimmerman and Mary Wolf. She was born 29 Jun 1901 in Edgar, Marathon County, Wisconsin, and died 11 Sep 1983 in Missoula, Missoula County, Montana.

Notes for Lawrence Kiehl:
Lawrence's WWI draft registration card lists his birth year as 1897 instead of 1898. No idea if he was actually drafted or not.

Lawrence and Amanda were married in Waukegan, Illinois. They moved to Missoula, Montana in 1952 after visiting their son Richard, who was attending the University of Montana. According to Richard, Lawrence liked the place so much, he decided to move there.

According to his son Richard, Lawrence had really bad arthritis and died of a combination of cortisone poisoning (used to treat the arthritis) and his heart giving out after years of smoking.

   Notes for Norman Kiehl:
